The Campbell Fund

What is the Campbell Fund?

The Campbell Fund is an Estate that was left to The City of Grinnell to disperse to the worthy poor in the City of Grinnell. Payments are made directly to the organizations and individuals providing services to citizens approved for assistance, such as grocery stores, taxi services, utilities and medical service organizations.

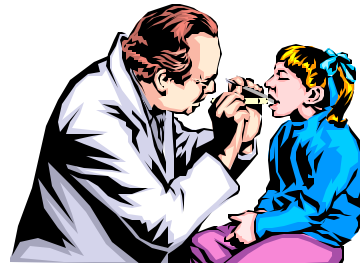

How do I get help from the Campbell Fund?

An application can be picked up at the city offices at 927 Fourth Avenue. Once they are they are reviewed to see if they meet the requirements for completed, they will be reviewed for approval for assistance. The review process includes city council approval, so it can take around a week to be processed.

If approved for assistance, the service you asked for assistance with will receive the approved payment. Any additional payment due above and beyond the approved amount will be the applicants responsibility.
